Anreise ins Gastland (Empfehlungen, Schwierigkeiten)

Travelling to the host country (recommendations, difficulties)

We can highly recommend Aegean Airline (<https://de.aegeanair.com>), which, if you are early with booking, are also very affordable. Within Greece we have mostly traveled with ferries (<https://www.bluestarferries.com/en-gb>) or our own car.

Leben im Gastland (Kultur, Unterkunft, Öffentlicher Transport, Essen, Lebenskosten)

Life in the host country (culture, accommodation, public transport, food, costs of living)

There are different platforms to find shared flats or apartments (www.facebook.com/groups/athens.greece.apartments.rooms.for.rent/ www.facebook.com/groups/253451275364680/en.spitogatos.gr) and of course airbnb (which sadly has had a huge impact to the rent prices for locals, but also has helped some with jobs and income). Rents are comparable to Austria, depending on the area also much cheaper.

There are many food options even to eat out economically. Supermarkets have ok prices, comparable to Austria. Good choice is to find out about local "laiki", markets that are hosted weekly in most areas of Athens.

Cultural life is rich, many galleries and offspaces additional to big museums. Music scene and nightlife is very versatile.

public transportation works well by bus, metro or train

Bei Auslandsstudien: Reflektion über das Studium (Lehrveranstaltungen, Sprache, Lehrende, Studierende, Auslandsbüro an der Gastuniversität)

Bei Auslandspraktika: Reflektion über das Praktikum (Art des Unternehmens, Arbeitsaufgaben, Betreuung)

Study Mobilities: Reflection on the study program (courses, language, teachers, students, International Office at the host university)

Traineeship Mobilities: Reflection on the internship program (Type of enterprise, work tasks, support)
